How Do I...Change My Address
With USCIS?

U.S. Citizenship
and Immigration Services

M-605 (05/05)

As a United States (U.S.) citizen, you are only required to update your address with USCIS if you have ever submitted a Form I-864, Affidavit of Support, to be the financial sponsor of someone so they can immigrate. You are required by law to tell us of any change of address within 30 days of your move by filing a Form I-865, Sponsor's Notice of Change of Address. You can download the I-865 and instructions from our website.

Pending Case

Even though it is not required by law, if you have filed any other application or petition with us and it is still pending a decision, you will want to keep us informed of any change of address so you can get any notices or decisions from us. For more information about the best way to notify us of an address change on a pending case, please see our website, or call customer service at 1-800-375-5283.

Approved Relative Petition

If you filed a Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, to help a relative get permanent resident status and we have approved it, and if you or the person you are sponsoring move, you should follow the instructions on the approval notice concerning who to notify about the change of address and how do it.
